TIME FOR A STRONG HAND.

Some day this country will wake up to the fact that there is too much leniency shown the elements that are engaged in spreading dissatisfaction and preaching the propaganda of Bolshevism. The criticism is more pointedly applied to the administration at this time but the fact remains that through mistaken policy or a desire to fatten the average of popularity on the eve of a campaign there is too much latitude allowed troublemakers and soap box orators whose only mission is to stir up strife. From the highest national prosecutor to the humblest county representative of justice there appears a desire to temporize rather than go to the bat and rush the trails to a stage where the public will know whether it is possible to secure a conviction at the hands of a dispassionate jury. The attorney general's office appears to be loaded with information of the most startling nature regarding the doings and conspiracies of the underworld of Reds and it would be interesting to ascertain what explanation the department has for not taking action without waiting for the whole country to be plunged into a mass strike which was ordered without any reason and according to the statements of the attorney general for the sole purpose of precipitating a revolution against the accepted principals of government. Mitchell Palmer appears to have been too deeply absorbed in politics to take a day off to give the subject the benefit of a personal investigation. After the harm was done to check at all hazards. Instead of doing this to the full extent of his power the attorney general waited on the pleasure of the president to call a meeting of the cabinet that he might spill the whole unprincipled mess off his stomach. With such spineless creatures in office in Washington and elsewhere it is a matter of surprise that the wobblies and communists and bolsheviks have not seized the seat of government and given the nation a taste of genuine Leninist doctrines. It is over three months since the first and only shipload of anarchists was sent away from Ellis Island. Thousands of other revolutionaries are threatened with the same medicine but the supine policy of the administration has been afraid to act.

A DANGEROUS WEAPON.

Every person had and should have the right to quit his employment after due notice to his employer. No man has a moral right, nor should he have a legal right to engage in railroad work and then enter into a conspiracy with his fellow workmen to quit simultaneously, thus destroying transportation service and bringing suffering upon the whole country. The railroad employee who is not satisfied with his job should endeavor by all proper means to secure conditions that are satisfactory but a strike is not the proper means. For railroad employees to engage simultaneously in a strike is more disastrous to the entire country than would be the injury to a mill if an I. W. O. put every dust in the lubricating oil, left the water out of the boilers or threw monkey wrenches in the machinery. One act is as morally wrong as the others and should be just as wrong in the eyes of the law.

WE'RE FROM MISSOURI.

The Democratic national committee puts out a bulletin saying that the war department through its retail stores is operating on an 8 per cent basis and selling for 25 per cent under prices charged by private concerns. Here's letting dollars to doughnuts that it isn't true and that a full examination of the records would show that there are some untold facts which would put the matter in a different light. Undoubtedly many retailers are profiteering but among those we happen to know, we have not seen any who seemed to be making a 25 per cent profit above what it would cost the government to operate a store. Won't some Congressional committee put the government store managers on the witness stand and find out how they get so much efficiency in one bureau when there is notorious inefficiency in all others.

A Dallas, Texas, Democrat writes to the New York World saying the Senate ought to be abolished and its functions performed by the President's cabinet. The truth is that the administration organs would like to abolish every agency of government but the President on the 4th of March next they will lose their enthusiasm for the scheme.

What has the present Congress done? Nothing but head off a couple of billion dollars of administration expenditures, take the railroads out of the hands of the politicians and turn them over to railroad men, save the republic from the sacrifice of its sovereignty, rights, interests and ideals under a European scheme of super-government, and a few little things like that.

Republicans will not nominate or elect President any man who is either ashamed or afraid to call himself a plain Republican. Why should they?

The Democratic party's idea of democracy is exemplified in the state of Virginia, where five sixths of the men conscripted to save the world for democracy were disqualified as voters under the election laws of the state.

The Springfield, Mass., Republican administration organ, says Democratic sentiment is not crystallized. No, it's paralyzed.

Now that the un-Americanized treaty has been laid out, a few statesmen who wouldn't take sides while the fight was on have rushed up to kick the corpse.

The diplomats who met at Paris to wind up the war were no great shakes as peace-makers, but as mess-makers they certainly did a thorough job.

Democratic chairman Homer Cummings says the Republicans got into power in Congress through "false pretenses." Mr. Wilson just got in claiming he would keep us out of war.

Homer Cummings declares that if a Democrat Congress had been elected the un-Americanized covenant would have been swallowed long ago. That is one of the reasons the people are glad they didn't elect one.

ITALY INHERITS RACE PROBLEMS

(Correspondence Associated Press)

TRIESTE, March 24.—Italian military authorities here say they have inherited from the war a lot of difficulties and problems in controlling the Slav population in Istria and the region surrounding Gorizia. This territory constitutes part of the Adriatic question which still remains unsettled by the Supreme Council. It passed under Italian control by the establishment of the armistice line at the end of the war.

In this territory there are more than 400,000 Slovenes who resent the surveillance of the Italian military police. Revolting Slav elements first with socialism, communism and bolshevism, intermittently attack the Italian military patrols and carabinieri of the army of occupation.

In these districts there have been within a year 20 assassinations and 1,000 arrests. Attempts have been made to set up a communistic regime at Dignano where large stores of ammunition which belonged to the old Austrian army had been collected and hidden beneath a building used as headquarters of a workmen's committee. The plot was discovered by the Italian police who raided the headquarters and arrested 120 Slavs. During the fighting with the communists, the building was wrecked by bombs.

Bolshevik outbreaks alleged to have been organized by Slav workmen have taken place at Pola, and a large Italian garrison is maintained at this formerly Austrian port, now the eastern base of the Italian Adriatic fleet. Disorders by Slavs have been frequent near Gorizia.

GAMBLING ISSUE SETTLED

BY ELKO VOTERS 3 TO 1

By a vote of nearly three to one Elko residents voted to adopt ordinance No. 18 as against ordinance No. 19 recently proposed. These two ordinances represented the fight on gambling issues. Ordinance No. 18 calls for the payment of a license of $100 per table per quarter. Ordinance No. 19 provided for the payment of $125 per quarter for three tables. A great many women voted at the election. The vote stood 225 to ninety-seven for ordinance No. 18.
